DRAFT MASTERPLANS FOR MARKET TOWNS AVAILABLE FOR VIEWING AND FEEDBACK

Huntingdonshire District Council has published draft masterplan documents for three of its market towns to allow residents and local stakeholders to give their views on the potential vision and future projects for the town.

The market towns of Huntingdon, Ramsey and St Ives now have draft masterplans published which can be viewed on the council's website, alongside a feedback form for local people to have their say on what is most important for their towns, what will have the greatest positive impact and which types of projects should be prioritised.

LITTER MINIMISATION

There is a new Facebook Group to bring together the Huntingdonshire litter picking community Hunts Litter Wombles Facebook Group

If you are involved with litter picking activities, they would really appreciate you joining the group and sharing any public events you may be holding. You can also share any good news stories and request any support or guidance from the wider community.

HDC would also greatly appreciate if you could let them know if you hold regular litter picks in your area, and if so, the set details for these. They would like to build a picture of the community litter picks happening across the district and see where we can better support. If they can support you in your current picks, or in setting up a regular pick in your area, please do let them know that too.

The Operations team can provide individuals or groups will pickers and bags prior to a litter pick and will arrange for any filled bags to be collected from an arranged collection point.

More details about how to get involved and arrange a litter pick within your community can be found via - www.huntingdonshire.gov.uk/bins-waste/community-litter-picks/
